Launch Your Career with AB InBev: Graduate Management Trainee Program
Brewing the world's most loved beers and building brands consumers love, AB InBev is where ownership, ambition, and action thrive. We empower you to dream big, lead change, and create a long-lasting legacy. We value relentless problem-solvers who take accountability, embrace challenges, and turn bold goals into results through resilience and hard work.

That's Who We Are: Come and OWN IT.

What is it?

Our Graduate Management Trainee (GMT) programme is a

- 10-month program starting in August 2026
- 2–3-month rotations within the program
- As a junior talent, you will work on critical business projects both on the field and office-based analytical projects situated in Sales, Commercial, Supply & Logistics, Finance, etc.
- You will have a 70-20-10 learning and development approach, where 70% Learning on the Job, 20% Exposure to Other, 10% Formal Learning & Training

Who are we looking for?

You are willing to become a future leader within AB InBev, and should be comfortable with an ambiguous career track, and expect geographic mobility.

The following qualities describe you: Leader. Proud Owner. Agile Learner. Collaborator. Future Maker.

To be eligible:

- You must have graduated (before September 2026 and no more than two years prior) with a Bachelor's, Master's (or equivalent) degree.
- You should also have no more than 2 years of professional experience (internships/volunteers/student jobs not included).
- Your passion and ownership are more important than the subject you studied.
- Fluent English is needed, as well as the local language of the country you are applying in.
- A valid permanent visa/work permit is required in the country of application to be eligible for the programme.
- During the 10-month program and beyond, you might be required to travel within your country of application and across Europe. In general, we expect global mobility from you.

We are looking for: Junior talent. Recent Graduate. Junior Manager. Professional Trainee. Graduate Trainee.
